H.E. Mr. Vuk Jeremić, President of the 67th session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, wishes to meet representatives of NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC or associated with DPI.

The meeting will focus on the issues before the 67th session of the General Assembly, particularly the priority areas that the President outlined in his opening speech. A brief statement on these priorities by the President will be followed by an exchange with the NGOs on the key challenges before the General Assembly, and the role and contribution of civil society in addressing them.

The meeting will be held on Monday, 26 November 2012, from 4:15 pm to 5:15 pm, at the Dag Hammarskjöld Auditorium, and is organized in collaboration with UN-NGLS, DESA NGO Branch, and DPI NGO Relations.
